How did you hear about Cooley Marine? _____

Cooley Marine's winter storage program includes FULL SERVICE: complete fall decommissioning and spring commissioning services. This rate sheet lists our competitive pricing for these services. We invoice for the three services separately: (1) Winter Storage, (2) Fall Service, and (3) Spring Service.

Please have your waste (head) holding tank emptied before winter service. We do not have pump-out capability. Please leave enough fuel and safety equipment for picking up, dropping off, and test-running of your boat. Don't forget to email your Proof of Insurance to info@cooleymarine.com. Bring with delivery if not emailed.

Terms and Conditions

1. This contract covers the period beginning November 1, 2023, and ending May 31, 2024, unless other arrangements are made previously. Preferred hauling & launch dates must be confirmed well in advance. After November 1, hauling dates will be at the yard's discretion.
2. The word tenant indicates the owner of any vessel stored with Cooley Marine.
3. Due to insurance company regulations and liabilities, absolutely no outside contractors will be allowed in the yard without first clearing with management. If not cleared, the tenant will lose storage privileges.
4. The tenant agrees to have his/her boat insured with complete marine coverage including liability and theft. Each tenant will be held liable for damage caused to other boats or facilities. Trailers in storage also need insurance coverage. Cooley Marine shall not be held responsible for the care or protection of the vessel or contents in any situation.
5. Reasonable precautions will be taken by Cooley Marine to protect tenants' property. Cooley Marine assumes no responsibility for the safety of any vessel stored and will not be liable for fire, theft, or damage to said vessel—however arising. No heaters of any kind are to be used on boats. Damage from animals is not the responsibility of Cooley Marine.
6. Tenants are not guaranteed access to their boats—inside or out—at any time while in storage.
7. In the event of ice, storm, etc. Cooley Marine will attempt if practical and possible to prevent damage. The tenant is still solely responsible for taking emergency precautions when necessary.
10. At the end of the agreed contract period (May 31, 2024), the tenant agrees to remove their vessel from Cooley Marine. If the vessel is left without renewing a storage agreement, the tenant agrees to pay daily storage fees of $3/foot/day.
11. The tenant agrees that a vessel stored with Cooley Marine in excess of 180 days without signing a new storage agreement will be considered abandoned property. Upon written notice to the tenant to remove the vessel, Cooley Marine will dispose of the vessel as it sees fit.
12. Do-it-yourself work is prohibited.
13. By agreeing to "Dry-Land Storage" the tenant also agrees to Full-Service Spring Commissioning including, but not limited to: Bottom Painting, Wash and Waxing, Electrical Service, Full Commissioning, Motor Service, Launching and testing of the boat. This will be charged at our normal rates as applicable.
14. Cooley Marine reserves the right to refuse service on any boat.
15. Storing your boat with Cooley Marine is considered consent to perform all work both Fall and Spring and acceptance of these Terms and Conditions.
16. Environmental Fees of 3% will be applied to all invoices.
